Employee termination letter word format

Dear Sir/Miss [Name],

Respected [Sir/Madam], first of all, I want to apologize for my mistake. I feel ashamed and are extremely sorry for what has happened.

[Sir/Madam], I have spent [14] years in your company and after one month after resigning I came to the conclusion it has been the worst decision I ever made. Not only do I miss the atmosphere of your company, but I also miss my previous colleagues and the way working that I now more than ever respect and cherish.

Therefore it is my humble request to cancel my previous resignation and give me the chance to resume my job at your company again.

Yours sincerely,

[Your name]

Dear [Recipients Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am Anne Anders, the Administrative Assistant at Fluency Inc. I am writing regarding Ms. Jean Jenkins' application for the training program your company is offering. I have known her for the past five years as both a colleague and close personal acquaintance, and may be able to provide useful information.

Ms. Jenkins' has been working for our company for five years now. She has an excellent track record and is well-known for her sense of initiative and persistence. A good example of these is the fact that most of our new campaigns came from her ideas. I am sure that she will grow even more and do an excellent job in your training program.

Thank you for your time. If you would like to ask more questions, I will be happy to accommodate you. Simply give me a call at 555-5555. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,
